MROZ SETS THE PACE AT PNGA JUNIOR BOYS'

Mill Creek, Wash. (Monday, August 11, 2008) – Alex Mroz (16) of Woodinville, Wash. is leading the pack of 137 players after an impressive opening round of 5- under par 67 at the 54th PNGA Junior Boys' Amateur Championship being held at Mill Creek Country Club in Mill Creek, Washington.

Mroz's opening round included seven birdies and only two bogeys. Hank Frame (17) of Spokane, Wash., Matt Rawitzer (17) of Bellingham, Wash. and recent U.S. Amateur Qualifier, Ricky McDonald (17) of Shoreline, Wash. are two shots back after all carding 3-under par-69's.

Other players who shot under par in the opening round of the 36-hole stroke play qualifying include Reid Martin (17) of Mukilteo, Wash. and Bradley Harrelson (16) of Snoqualmie, Wash with 2-under par-70's, and Jack Pennington (17) of Eugene, Ore., Jack Kelly (15) of Seattle, Wash. and William Holdridge (17) of Bellingham, Wash with 1-under par-71's.

The championship consists of 36 holes of stroke play qualifying to determine flights for the match play portion of the championship. The lowest 32 scorers from the qualifying rounds will advance to the Championship Flight, with each of the remaining flights being comprised of eight contestants. All matches are single-elimination and contested over 18-holes.

To be eligible for the Pacific Northwest Junior Boys' Amateur Championship, contestants must be 17 years of age or younger as of August 15th, and also carry a handicap index of 24.4 or less.

2008 PPGA Junior Boys' Amateur Championship
MROZ CLAIMS MEDALIST HONORS AT PPGA JUNIOR BOYS'

Mill Creek, Wash. (Tuesday, August 12, 2008) – Alex Mroz (16) of Woodinville, Wash. continued his solid play today during the second round of stroke play qualifying. A round of 2-under par-70 was enough to claim Medalist honors after a two round total of 7-under par-137 at the 54th PPGA Junior Boys' Amateur Championship being held at Mill Creek Country Club in Mill Creek, Washington.

Mroz played his last ten holes at 5-under par after a rough start with three bogeys in the opening eight holes. Mroz will be the #1 seed heading into match play on Wednesday.

Matt Rawitzer (17) of Bellingham, Wash. followed up his opening round of 69 with a 2-under par-70 to claim the #2 seed with a two day total of 5-under par-139. Like Mroz, Rawitzer played the front nine at 2-over par-38 but finished the back nine with a bogey free, 4-under par-32.

Four other players in the 137 player field finished the 36-hole stroke play qualifying under par. They include Hank Frame (17) of Spokane, Wash. (140), Reid Martin (17) of Mukilteo, Wash. (140), Ricky McDonald (17) of Shoreline, Wash. (141) and 2007 Medalist, William Holdridge (17) of Bellingham, Wash. (142).

Seven players at 9-over par 153 had a playoff for the final five spots in the Championship Flight of 32. Bobby Monaco of Eugene, Ore, Kelly Campbell of Auburn, Wash., Tyler Collins of Federal Way, Wash., Kyle Hurt of Bainbridge Island, and Justin Haase of Spokane, Wash. were the successful five players to advance to the Championship Flight.

The championship consists of 36-holes of stroke play qualifying to determine flights for the match play portion of the championship. The lowest 32 scorers from the qualifying rounds advanced to the Championship Flight, with each of the remaining flights being comprised of eight contestants. All matches are single-elimination and contested over 18-holes.
